The Court conducts a telephonic Cheeks hearing. The Court is satisfied that the parties adequately addressed the issues raised in the Court's September 9th Order. For the reasons stated on the record, this Court concludes that the settlement, as revised, is fair and reasonable and was reached as a result of arms-length negotiations between the parties, with the assistance of a mediator. The [13], [17] motions for settlement approval and to submit a supplemental agreement are granted. The parties' must file their Stipulation of Discontinuance by September 28, 2022.
